

Spring Tension Pins

Pentz Spring Tension Pins are used wherever two or more parts must be joined together. They can be used in the various functions of: location, hinge, stop, anchor and because they are made to order a choice of material thicknesses can suit the toughest applications.

Only the same high quality spring steel as recommended for this product, 1.5026, 1.8509 is used in their construction.

Special demands are regularly produced and pins to 70 mm diameter and 260 mm long are within our capability.

